Morderer Buchanan's Execution Delayed for the Governor's Action.

COVERNOR DENIES RESPITE.

Lawyer Gibbons, the Condemned Man's Counsel, Visits the Executive.

THE POISONER'S LAST DAYS.

Fully Convinced of His Fate He Now Eagerly Seeks for Religious Consolation.

nearer to the room with the chair. He became nervous and excitable. He wanted to talk, talk, talk—with the keepers, with the Warden, with any one. When he first came he weighed 139 pounds, and until the last reversal he had gained in weight. Then he suddenly began to thin down.

He is an intelligent man, a learned man, and an educated one, and because of that he did not sink at once into that dumb, legarthic state which marks the closing days of the average criminal-the man whose brain becomes numbed with the horror of death. Instead, he became more nervous, more excitable, and even more talkative.

The convicted. The defense had been able to secure the testimony of experts who will swear that there is sothing in the evidence of the trial to prove that morphine poisoning was ever administered to Mrs. Buchanan.

The experts who are willing to make such statements are Drs. Oppenheimer and Scheele. The claim of these experts its that morphine developed in the stomach of the woman after death from decomposition.

Buchanan, Mr., Gibbons added, had been been denied him. He should have sufficient time in which to make up his mind on the journey he is to take for the world unknown.

The counsel appealed to the Governor as a man of sympathy and as a gentleman.

ALBANY, April 21—At 130 miclock

ruted during the coming week.

Gov. Morton denied the application of counsel for a respite for Murderer Buchanan, and will accordingly be exe-leveland Thinks the Ends of Justice Have Been Answered.

PARDONS THE GOULDS.

WASHINGTON, April 29.-The Presi lent to-day granted pardons in the cases dent to-day granted partitions in the of William Gould, jr., and Anthony Gould, sentenced to six years in the Gloud, sentenced to six years in the Pentientiary for abstracting funds from the City National Bank, of Albany, N. Y. The former was sentenced in Septem-ber, 1891, and the latter in March, 1892. In the case of William Gould the President makes the following indorse-

Religious Consolation.

(Receist to The Evening World.)

SING SING April 20.—Dr. Robert W.
Buchanan will not be executed Monday, because Warden Sage has not yet sent out the invitations to the witnesses who are expected to be present, and the law says positively that witnesses must be notified three days in advance of an execution.

The warden had intended to invite all his witnesses last Thursday, but he delived because Lawyer Gibbons, Buchanan and secunsel, intended to go to Albany

The warden had intended to go to Albany

President makes the following indozes. "This convict is one of five persons convicted of conspiring together to criminally obtain funds of a National bank. All the rest have been pardoned that it has expired to the invitations of the Supreme Court came to him like a shock, and he college to the others and be had now been confined that it has so the property of the others and be had now been confined almost three years and six months before any of the others and be had now been confined almost three years and six months. The way of the others and intended to invite all his witnesses last Thursday, but he delived because Lawyer Gibbons, Buchana and are counsel, intended to go to Albany

The warden had intended to invite all his witnesses last Thursday, but he delived because Lawyer Gibbons, Buchana and the converse of their criminality than the criter.

Tam not a religious man, and I don't him the property of the converse of their relief. "If there was any difference in the degree of their criminality than the criter."

If there was any difference in the criter. The convertise and the same convertise and the same convertise and the convertise and the convertise and the convertise and considerable evidence has intraction of the convertise and the should be held to the strictest accountability."

In granting the parion in the other who, which are appropriate to the which was no fall the convertible and the convertib

MORE FRAUD DISCLOSED.

Sypher & Co.'s Discharged Clerk

Tells of Rank Smuggling. The case of Sypher & Co. whose un-

The case of Sypher & Co. whose undervaluations of imported bricea-brac were exclusively told about in "The Evening World" yesterday, is occupying all the attention of Collector Kilbreth and his assistants to-day. This morning the Collector had a further conferience with Col. Phelps, and it is understood that special instructions were this morning received from the Treasury Department.

1. H. Todd, the discharged chief clerk of Sypher & Co., who gave the damaging information, against the firm, is telling what he knows by degrees. He states on specific case of smugging pure and simple—that of bringing in two vases valued at $1.000, which went to Banker G. P. Morosini. Todd also tells how Sypher brought in plated sliverware from abroad, fixed up and hearing the forged "hall mark" of the English Silvermath's Guild, to make them appear genuine old silver pieces. These articles were sold to collectors of rare old silverware as genuine.

Eugene Honeywell, the examiner, who passed the goods imported by Sypher & Co., is being put through a rigid examination as to how he passed all the boxus and undervalued articles without discovering the trick.

Another feature of the case is that disclosed by Todd. Several years ago the special agents here received secret orders from the then Secretary of the Treasury to examine Sypher & Co. is books They went to the store, but all the books, save two or three inconsequential ones, were not to be found.

Todd told the Collector that Sypher & Co. had a tip from some one in the coustoms service that this examination was coming, and the night before the special agents made their descent on the place, all the books were removed to Mount Vernon.

As only three or four persons in the service outside of the special agents

The Thereians, the Burder of the State of th

Grand Union Hotel, think that his suicide was caused by temporary insulation ranged and fell.

Patrolman Feeney, of the Mulberry street police station, causiff Antonion at Grand and Elizabeth streets.

Mr. Beitsch rescued a salary of E.O.

Mr. Ideitsch rescued a salary of E.O.

Mr. Ideitsch

DELAYING PERRY'S RETURN.

Oliver Curtis Perry, the train robber who is in the Hudson County Jali awaiting his return to the Matteawan Assium for the Criminal Insane, passed another comfortable night last night. To-day he told Warden Mitchel, of the jali, that he was well pleased with the manner in which he was being treated.

Commissioner Nugent, who was appointed to take the tesmimony in the case next Monday, says it should take only a few hours to do so.

The requisition papers have not yet heen signed by Gov. Werts, and Lawyer Simpson, who is acting as Perry's counsel, says the Governor promised him he would not sign the papers until there was a hearing in court.

Nothing has yet been done towards paying the reward to Policeman McAlesse and Detective Clifford, of Weehawken, the two officials who caught Perry. They are trying to prevent his extradition, also, until the money is paid them. who is in the Hudson County Jali await-day is the fortieth anniversary o United States Commissioner Shielda's advent into public office. On arriving at the Federal Euflding he found all the clerks and employees of the United States Circuit Court and others waiting to congratulate him. Among them were Judges Wallace, Lacombe, Coxe and Shipman.

Congratulations.

COMMISSIONER SHIELDS

COMMISSIONER SHIELDS

A floral horseshoe was presented by the United States deputy marshals.

Commissioner Shields first entered the employ of the Federal Government in a clerical capacity on April 29, 185. He has successively occupied the position of deputy clerk of the United States Court, clerk of the United States Court, clerk of the United States Coroul Court of Appeals, and United States Commissioner.

AUTO STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF T

(Continued from First Page.)

salaries.

He was employed as attorney by the Firemen's Mutual Benevoient Association, and declared that there was no fund ever raised, to his knowledge, to secure or promote the passage of the bill.

Firemen's Mutual Benevolent Association, and declared that there was no idea and declared that there was no idea and declared that there was no idea and the conditions which I imposed when I undertook to prepare the measure and take charge of it before the Legislature, was that no money should be used in furthering its passage; that no one should go to Albany for that purpose, and that no money should be used in furthering its passage; that no one should go to Albany for that purpose, and that no money should be used in furthering its passage; that no one should go to Albany for that purpose, and that no money should be used in furthering its passage; that no one should go to Albany for that purpose, and that no money should be used in furthering its passage; that no one should go to Albany for that purpose, and that come from the life in the further of the manual that he measure should stand upon its merits, and the men and as in the bill, and that the men and the said that the bill.

"They have assured me," continued commissioner Sheffield, "that no such first the bill passed, and that it was absolutely necessary to a standard that the men and see what they was fortheoming.

"I saked him from what source he may be used that I should meet with the usual that the bill would asked that I should meet with the usual that the bill.

"They have assured me," continued commissioner Sheffield, "that no such first the bill passed, and that it was absolutely necessary to a standard that Senator Robertson would never amount of the Commissioners, he said, were not in favor of the officers amounted this time of the properties of the first that the said that he was in favor of the officers amounted this time that they are also the first that the men and see what they was a senator Robertson was concerned, be did not know whether he was until the did not know whether he was until the properties of the first that the was in favor of increasing the said that the was in favor of increasing the said that the was in favor of incre RIFLED POSTED LETTERS.

Not Favored by Commissioners, he said, were not in favor of the officers amendment. So are as he knew neither being for the summoring on the charge of stealing thirty letters, each of which contained a small quantity of money.

Owens is a letter-carrier attached to the main office, and his duties were to collect the letters along Nassau street, from Wall street to the Post-Office Building. The National Commercial Agency, at 37 Nassau street, caused the afreet.

The janitor of the Mutual Life Building found that a number of letters had been stuffed into a closet in the oullding, and that a carrier answering Owens's description had been there a short time previously. The letters albeen riffed.

Owens's examination was fixed for next Saturday. He lives at 410 Cherry street.

FORTY YEARS IN OFFICE.

U. S. Commissioner Shields Receives Congratulations.

Not Favored by Commissioners, he said, were of the officers of the officer of the soft of the soil about it. I did so, and we decided to sacrifice our increase of salary rather then for on the shew we there she there was the concerned. Senator Raines and the state said about it. I did so, and we decided to sacrifice our increase of the salary and the salar provide of the was unfriended. The only conversation the ever opposed the Favor of the was unfriended. The only conversation he ever had that he was in favor of increasing the only conversation he ever had that he was in favor of increasing the salar provided of the salar provided on the salar with the mene and salar provided on the salar Coggeshall Gives a Reminder.

Another important point in Clifford's settimony was the statement that a diner had been given at the Morton for the Benator Coggeshall, who was sitting near Ronafor Raine, arose and said.

I said I was in favor of the bill, Mr. Sheffield.

Well, I will take your word for it," said the witness. "I know that a number of the Senators promised to suppointed over the delay of the Senate in acting on the bill that at that time he did not know what to think of it. He admitted that he had had some very disagreeable interviews with Senator Robertson, Lou Payn and a number of the Senator Robertson, Lou Payn and a number of the Senator Robertson, Lou Payn and a number of the Senator Robertson, Lou Payn and a number of the Senator Robertson, Lou Payn and a number of the Whether and that time, he said, that the deal was a soles appointed over the delay of the Senator that time, he said, that the deal was appointed over the delay of the Senator that time, he said, that the deal was appointed over the delay of the Senator to the built of the Company of the Company of the Company of the corruption fund. He had been could that the Department, but what was done with the Department, but what was done with the Department, but what was done with the Department, but what was done, the limit of the Company of your conversations in connection with the Judicial Saies bill.

"How the said that was mentioned to state this, saying that Mr. Quigg many of your conversations in connection with the Judicial Saies bill.

"It was important to know who were our freedom and was the which he had gathered in regard to the built of the conversation of the Commissioner Sheffield declined to state this, saying that Mr. Quigg was had the said that th at that time Assistant Foreman Quina, of Engine II. Ind come to see him at Dally's Theatre, where he was assigned to duty the night of thresh 6 hast.

"I had known him well for some time," said Clifford, "He said he had been appointed by the Officers' Association as a committee of one to see me, as President of the Firemen's Association, to see if something could not be done to have the Salary bill, then pending at Albany, attended to properly.

"He told me he had full information that the bill would never be reported favorably, except by the use of money. THE LONDON STAGE.

Eleanora Duse Signs for Another American Tour

John Hare Tells What He Will Play Here Next January.

Unusual Number of New Plays Produced During Easter Week.

(Copyrighted, 1895, by the Americated Press.)
LONDON, April 29.—Signora Eleanora Duse, the Italian actress, signed with Harry Miner, of New York, for will begin in November next at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York City. Signora Duse will be supported by her own company.

Easter week was marked by the production of an unusual number of new pieces at the London theatres. The Adelphi led the way on Saturday last with Fyles and Belasco's "The Girl I ing Mr. Toole, though recovering from his iliness, but slowly, reappeared at his theatre in "Thoroughbred." At the Strand Theatre, where the run of "A Loving Legacy" ended a fortnight ago, a new farce in three acts, by Messrs. Sims and Raleigh, entitled "Fanny," was produced on Monday evening, and turned out to be a poor piece of work.

A new romantic drama, entitled "The Work Girl," was brought out at the surrey Theatre, and on Tuesday last Comyns Carr reopened the Comedy The-atre with the long announced play by Sardou, "Della Harding," which is known in the United States as "A Woman's Stlence." Another important point in Clifford's testimony was the statement that a dinner had been given at the Morton House about that time, at which Senator Robertson, Lou Payn and a number of officers were present. It was at that time, he said, that the deal was arranged.

Mr. Carr has completely recast the play, but it was practically a failure. the plot and incidents belonging, accord ng to the London critics, to the school of the circus tent drama.

Weedon Grossmith, on Thursday last, produced at the Vaudeville Theatre Ar-thur Law's new farcical comedy, "The Ladies' Idol," a successor to "The New Boy." The play is not a remarkable one, although Grossmith was as funny as ever. Esme Beringer, who has been in Grossmith's company for the past year, and whose sister was the original "Little Lord Fauntleroy," scored a suc cess in the new play.

Mr. Terry has postponed the produc tion of "The Passport," by Messrs, B. C. Stevenson and W. Yardley, to Thurs day next.

The future movements of Mrs. Patrick Campbell are creating the livellest excitement in theatrical circles. John Hare was anxious to secure her for his tour in America, where she would have played in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" and "The Notorious Mrs. Ebbsmith." Beerbohm Tree wanted her to renew her contract with him, which ends in July. A very tempting offer to appear at the Lyceum was made by Forbes Robertson, who will commence man agement in the Autumn, and, finally, new parts in plays by Pinero formed the bast thrown out to lure her to an other theatre.

It was thought that, in all probability, Forbes-Robertson would be the for-tunate man, and in that case a re-vival of "Romeo and Juliet" at the Lyceum was to be expected. But it is now announced that Beerbohm Tree will shortly revive "Fedora," with Mrs. Campbell in the title role, and it would seem that she will remain with him. Concerning his American tour Mr. Hare said yesterday:

"I have long been desirous of visiting America, which I have never yet seen. I know that all artists worthy of attention receive kind and generous recep tions there, but you see when a man has for many years been playing to a home audience he finds them all old friends and blind to his shortcomings.

"It was really Bret Harte," he con-tinued, "who finally confirmed me in my dea of going. I was dining in his pleasant company and something was said about my visiting America, when he said, 'You are just the man for America and America is the place for you."
"What plays shall you produce there?"

Mr. Hare was asked.

"Well, I have hardly decided," he re-plied, "I don't sail until next January, and my plans are not fully matured. I don't intend to have any very large reportoire, however. I shall probably produce the play now running here, 'A Quiet Rubber," and 'A Pair of Spectaduced I think that I may say without vanity, it was a marvellous success. Yet strange to say, when it was done in New York it was not so popular." "Will Mrs. Campbell go with you?"

"I sincerely hope that such an arrangement may be arrived at, but it is course, be necessary for me to take a large company, and I shall spare no effort to make my tour a success."

Mr. Hare could not confirm the rumor that Mr. Willard would take the Garrick I beatre during his absence. Henry Irving has to get through a dozen or so revivals this season in order to complete, after his custom, the repertoire which he will take with him to America in September. In some of these, and especially as Rosamund in Nothing," Julia Arthur will make her first appearance on the London stage. One of the first of this interesting series of reproductions will be that of this-probably on the 27th inst.—the sin-gularly attractive programme furnished in "The Story of Waterloo," practically new to London playgoers, and the absolutely new "Don Quixote," will be presented. Both of these will be preceded by the clever little work of Mr. Pinero's earlier days called "Bygones."

There has been considerable interest manifested as to whether W. S. Gilbert, who has not yet returned from his trip has been so employed, and that his next production will be colored by his recent trip to that island.

TELEPHONE RATES.

Henry Lee, the American actor, has been very successful in his character sketch, "Great Men, Past and Present," in which he has been for the past week appearing at the Paleon Thatter Week has been so employed, and that his next production will be colored by his recent $80.00 Per Year appearing at the Palace Theatre. His makeup in the different characters assumed is remarkable, and the dialogue and music which form the motive of the entertainment are regularly artistic and pleasing.

Brevoort House Won't Close Yet.

The owner of the Brevoort House at Fifth are-

The Metropolitan Telephone and Telegraph Co.

18 CORTLANDT ST.

The owner of the Bravoort House at Fifth avenue and Eighth street has bought the hotel for nature and fatures of O. B. Libber, the present former of the Bravoort House at Fifth avenue and fatures of O. B. Libber, the present further notice.

ELSE to Jamaica, has been at work on an-other opera. It is now stated that he SPEEDY CURE TREATMENT-Warm Baths, with CUTICURA

SOAP, gentle applications of CU-TICURA (cintment), and mild doces of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, (blood purifier) speedily cure torturing, disfiguring, itching scaly and acrefulous humers when the best physicians and all other remedies fall. NOW IS THE TIME TO USE

Petter Drug & Chemical Corp., Sele Proprietors, Besten, U.S.A.